APPLICATION FOR COOPERATIVE SPONSORSHIP OF AN ACTIVITY

Applications are to be initiated by each Board of Education and submitted not later than April 30 of the preceding year for which the program is desired.

Cooperative sponsorship conditions include the following:

1. Member schools may apply for cooperative sponsorship to the governing Board of the respective activity's organization. The application shall include the resolution/agreement adopted by the governing Board of each school. Attach the resolution/agreement from each school to this application.
2. Separate applications shall be submitted for each activity association.
3. School districts shall be contiguous with one of the other schools within the agreement unless the activity is not offered at any school contiguous to the party district in which case the contiguous requirement may be waived.
4. The cooperative sponsorship agreement shall be for one year.
5. A school's students may be engaged in cooperative activities under the terms of only one agreement.
6. Decisions on all applications will be determined by the respective governing organization within 10 days.
